Auctioneer's Note: Midwest Land Management is honored to be selling this high profile Hunt Sisters farm that has been in the family for over 150 years! This high quality farm offers excellent soils with an average CSR2 value of 89.6 and an even better location. This farm would certainly make a great addition to any traditional farmland portfolio but the opportunities are endless for what this land could become in the future. With hard surface roads on both sides and scenic views from the south side of the farm offering a gorgeous overlook of the Little Sioux River meandering through the Little Sioux Savanna Park, this farm could become a rural paradise just minutes from the Iowa Great Lakes. Take a closer look at this exciting opportunity and make plans to bid online or in person on the day of the sale.
